P-TA Reps Given Advice On Publicity

Presidents and publicity chairmen in Torrance Council P-TA met with Ralph Gompertz, assistant editor of the Torrance Press, on Friday at the Torrance Board of Education office for a briefing on news reporting.

During the discussion Gompertz stated that the news value of each release must be important, that significant facts be placed first, and that only the essentials should be reported—clearly, plainly, and simply.

He stressed in particular the importance of an article on news writing which appeared in the August 20 issue of the Torrance Press. The article was meant to serve as a reference guide for all press chairmen.

Representatives Present at the meeting were: Mrs. H. E. Carr, Torrance Council P-TA president; Mrs. J. L. Hinds, Torrance Council P-TA president; Mrs. J. L. Hinds, Torrance Council P-TA publicity chairman; Mrs. Carl Cramer, Walteria P-TA president; Mrs. I. O. Kasten, Torrance High School P-TA president; Mrs. William H. Skiles, Crenshaw elementary P-TA.
